

*** CALL FOR ARTWORK ***

Center for Western Studies, Augustana University, Sioux Falls, SD

Exhibition Titled: Stallions and Mares – Legends of the Plains

DATES: July 29th 2022-November 18th 2022

CALL: Artwork featuring horses of the Northern Plains

The history of the Northern Plains cannot be told without the presence of the Horse. Brought to North America by European explorers in the 1400s, horses quickly became a prized animal by Native Americans and settlers alike. Since their introduction to the Northern Plains, horses have solidified themselves as a crucial component to our life and culture.

Similarly, artwork of the Northern Plains region often highlights the importance of horses. Dating back centuries, horses have often been the primary subject of Northern Plains artwork. Thus, the Center for Western Studies is humbled to present Stallions and Mares – Legends of the Plains featuring artwork highlighting horses of the Northern Plains. All of the artwork on display in this exhibit will feature horses in some way or another. Regional artists are invited to submit up to five works for consideration to be displayed in the juried CWS gallery exhibition. Artwork submitted for consideration should focus primarily on horses and their importance to the Northern Plains.

Artists interested in exhibiting works in this exhibit must complete the attached form, which includes the title(s), dimensions, price(s) (if for sale), and an example image of the work(s). Please submit the form and example image(s) to Education Assistant Kamryn Miller, Center for Western Studies, 2001 S. Summit Ave., Sioux Falls, SD, 57197, kamryn.miller@augie.edu no later than Friday June 30, 2022.

Artists will be notified of exhibit acceptance on or before July 7, 2022.
