Candi Brings Plenty, Wakinyan Tunwanpi iyoyanpa Win (Bright Lightening Woman), is an Oglala Lakota, Queer Indigenous, Non-binary Two Spirit. They continue to educate and advocate throughout Turtle Island sharing their experience as a frontline Two Spirit Water Protector and as a Land Defender. They are a fierce Missing and Murdered Indigenous People’s advocate. Candi is a direct descendent of Crazy Horse’s band and is an ancestral survivor of the Wounded Knee Massacre. They continue to stand in the face of the colonizer to protect the sacred and Unči Maka. They currently live in the Black Hills where they work as the first ACLU Indigenous Justice Organizer for the South Dakota, North Dakota & Wyoming region. They incorporate their traditional protocols, as well as singing Lakota prayer songs and empowerment songs to continue to elevate Two Spirit visibility and awareness to empower other Two Spirit leaders, activists, and youth to embrace their spiritual armor and honor their authentic selves.
