

Parking

Parking at meters, public ramps and lots in downtown Sioux Falls is free after 5 p.m. on weekdays and all day on weekends and holidays. The parking meters along the north side of the Washington Pavilion on 11th Street have a four hour maximum; while the meters on along the west side on Dakota Avenue have a three hour maximum. Additionally, there is free 90 minute parking on the East side of the Washington Pavilion along Main Avenue. Parking meters range from $1-$1.25 per hour.

Parking is available at the public ramp at 12th Street and Main Ave—just across the street from the Washington Pavilion. General fee is $1.50 an hour. There is also a public parking ramp on the corner of 10th Street and Main, only one block north of the Washington Pavilion.
